“Our Dedicated Person . . . ”

Mrs. Marcia Bradshaw

When Jimmy Campbell, our yearbook photographer, let us know that he had taken a picture of this year's candidate, he told us that he had photographed "our dedicated person."

That phrase suits Mrs. Marcia Bradshaw to a T. She is director of the Learning Resources Center here at Mitchell and the extra effort she puts out is appreciated by faculty and students alike. Mrs. Bradshaw received her graduate and undergraduate degrees from Appalachian State College, and has also studied at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, N.C. State, and Western Carolina.

We would like to thank Mrs. Bradshaw for her continuing efforts to maintain a high standard of excellence in Mitchell's LRC.

May Week 1983

Freshmen Attendants: Lori Myers, escorted by Kevin Helms; Robin Mayberry, escorted by Scott Wise; Susan Laws, escorted by Greg Laws; Nita Alexander, escorted by Dennis Brown. Terry McLaury, Queen, escorted by Wesley Waugh; Tracy Fortner, Maid-of-Honor, escorted by Ricky Reid. Sophomore attendants: Keri Buckner, escorted by Rodney Morrow; Crystal Davis, escorted by Chuck Byrd; Payge Pinson, escorted by Steve Sherrill; Gail Scarborough, escorted by Tony Combs.

May Festival Week took place from May 3 to May 8, under beautiful, sunny skies. A full week of activities was planned, from a tricycle race around the Circle to a Duck-waddle race. The conference tennis tournament was hosted by Mitchell at Caldwell Park during this time also. Many exhibits of art and photography were held.

Terry McLaury is crowned Queen by Dr. Charles Poindexter.

The students and faculty were entertained by Gregg Hyslop, the visiting artist from CPCC, with some jazz guitar. A dance troupe, directed by Karen Sherrill, also performed. Some numbers from Bye Bye Birdie were also done by the Choir and Theatrical Company.

Fun And Games, Mitchell-Style.

"That's not going to go, Romus!"

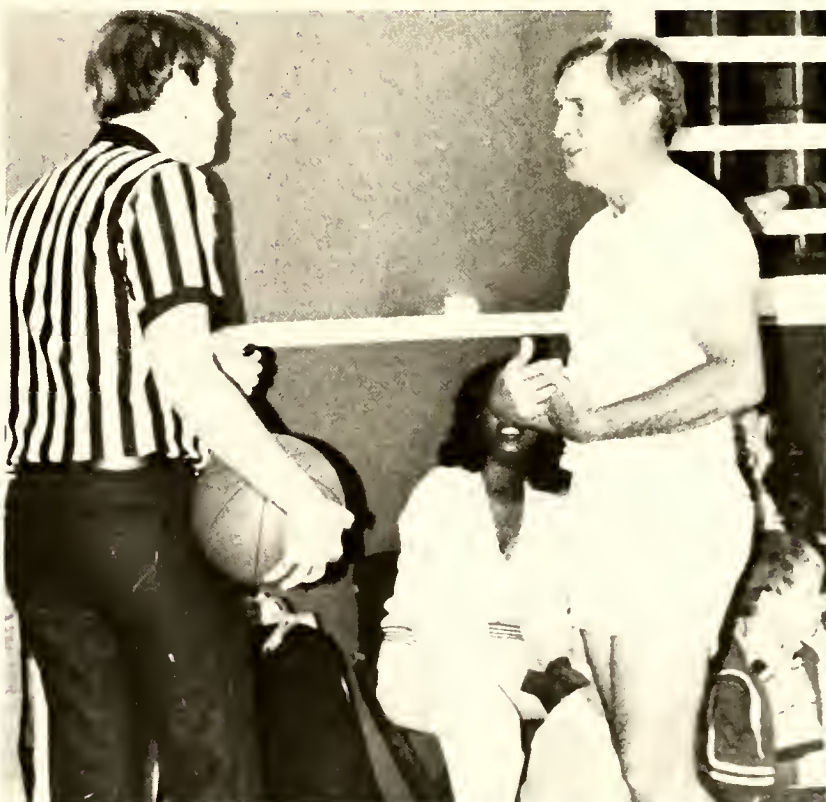

Phi Theta Kappa hosted the annual student-faculty basketball game, which was won by the faculty. This year, we even had some cheerleaders!

"Stand still, Mr. Myers!" Bernard Baxter takes careful aim.

'Spanky' Summers skies for two despite the defense of Mr. Harvey "Animal" Pons.

"Who, me, ref?" Dr. Poindexter argues a point.

Fall 1982

John, take your finger out of the socket!

Steve Sherrill shows the world his real face on Club Day.

Fall 1982 featured a faculty Halloween costume contest. Students were treated to the sight of Mr. Harvey Pons as Papa Smurf, Mr.

Steve Herman as Darth Vader with genuine light-up eyes, and, to quote an observer, "some nut in a bird suit."

The Mitchell faculty reveals their true selves.

"Papa Smurf" (Mr. Harvey Pons) won the prize for "Best Costume."

Who's Got The Prettiest Legs? We Decided

The SGA Pretty Legs contest raised $54 for The United Way.

Mr. Tom Myers and other faculty members were put in jail to help the Criminal Justice Association raise money for charity.

Phi Beta Lambda and its Advisory Board, composed of business leaders in the community, held meetings to discuss the Small Business Fair.

"Help! I can't hear a thing!!"

Ray Gabriel describes Phi Beta Lambda's creed during the initiation banquet for new members.

"Who'd A Thunk It?" Dark Of The

The Witch Girl, played by Nita Alexander, bargains with the Conjurer Man, played by Charles Snyder, for the life of Barbara Allen.

Kneeling: Carol Parker, Dottie Jackson, Monica Burleigh, Jeri Benge, and Christy Williams. Standing: Mary Ann Williams, Paul Walden, Dennis Brown, and Teresa Hudspeth.

Bystanders try to subdue Barbara Allen (Robin Blackwelder) and Edna Summey (Jeri Benge) when a fight breaks out between them at the town dance. Other characters involved include: Hank, Mrs. Summey (Monica Burleigh), Kerry Maher (Mr. Summey), and Dennis Brown (Mr. Jenkins).

In the revival scene, Uncle Smellicue (Steve Sherrill) confesses his shame. He is comforted by Preacher Haggle (Mike Smith), as Hank (Dave Bumgarner) looks on.

Moon A Smash At Mitchell

Concerned about the gossip going around about Barbara Allen, the preacher has come to make an offer to find Barbara a husband. Pa Allen (Jimmy Lowe), Floyd Allen (David Farris), and Ma Allen (Donna Williams) listen attentively.

The Southland Ramblers provided music for the play.

John, the Witch Boy, played by Mark Underwood, comforts Barbara Allen after the baby is killed and they renew their vows of love.

Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Summey break the news that Barbara's baby has been born a witch.

Most Outstanding Male Student

Charles M. Thomas

His positive attitude, his winning smile, his academic success, his contributions to the entire Mitchell family have all endeared him to his fellow students and the faculty and staff of the college.

“ Most Outstanding Female Student

Claire E. Gordon

A top student, academically, and a very active citizen on the campus, Claire has been able to inspire those around her through her hard work, sense of humor, and keen insights. Always dependable, she's never let us down.

Minnie Ruth Ijames

One of the most effective SGA Presidents Mitchell has ever had. Her sweet and sincere disposition, her willingness to listen and to help, and her effective planning and organization have all been assets that caused us at Mitchell to love and respect her.

Student Government Association

S.G.A. Officers

Nita Alexander, treasurer; Minnie Ijames, president; Chuck Thomas, vice-president; Amy Dagenhart, secretary.

The Student Government Association is composed of all the officers of the student body, the officers of the classes, and representatives from all the clubs and organizations on campus. The SGA has the responsibility of overseeing the appropriation of funds for various activities. It also serves as a liason between the students and the administration.

This past fall, the SGA held its first leadership banquet at the Western Steer. It was a great success. Representatives of all the clubs and their advisors attended. The SGA also gave its annual Fall Picnic.

Mr. Chester P. Middlesworth spoke at the SGA Leadership Banquet.

Visiting artist Kerry Maher, and Miss Linda Whisnant, member of the English faculty, give their version of "Charlie Brown."

Just what exactly is in that bottle, Mr. Blalock? Dean Reep, Robbie Byers, and Mark Pennell want to find out.

Voting for class officers and SGA secretary and treasurer took place during the Fall Picnic also.

Circle K

The Mitchell College Circle K Club is a college-level service organization which exists only for providing service work for the campus and community. It is sponsored by the Statesville Kiwanis Club.

Winter 1982-83

Student-Teacher Interaction

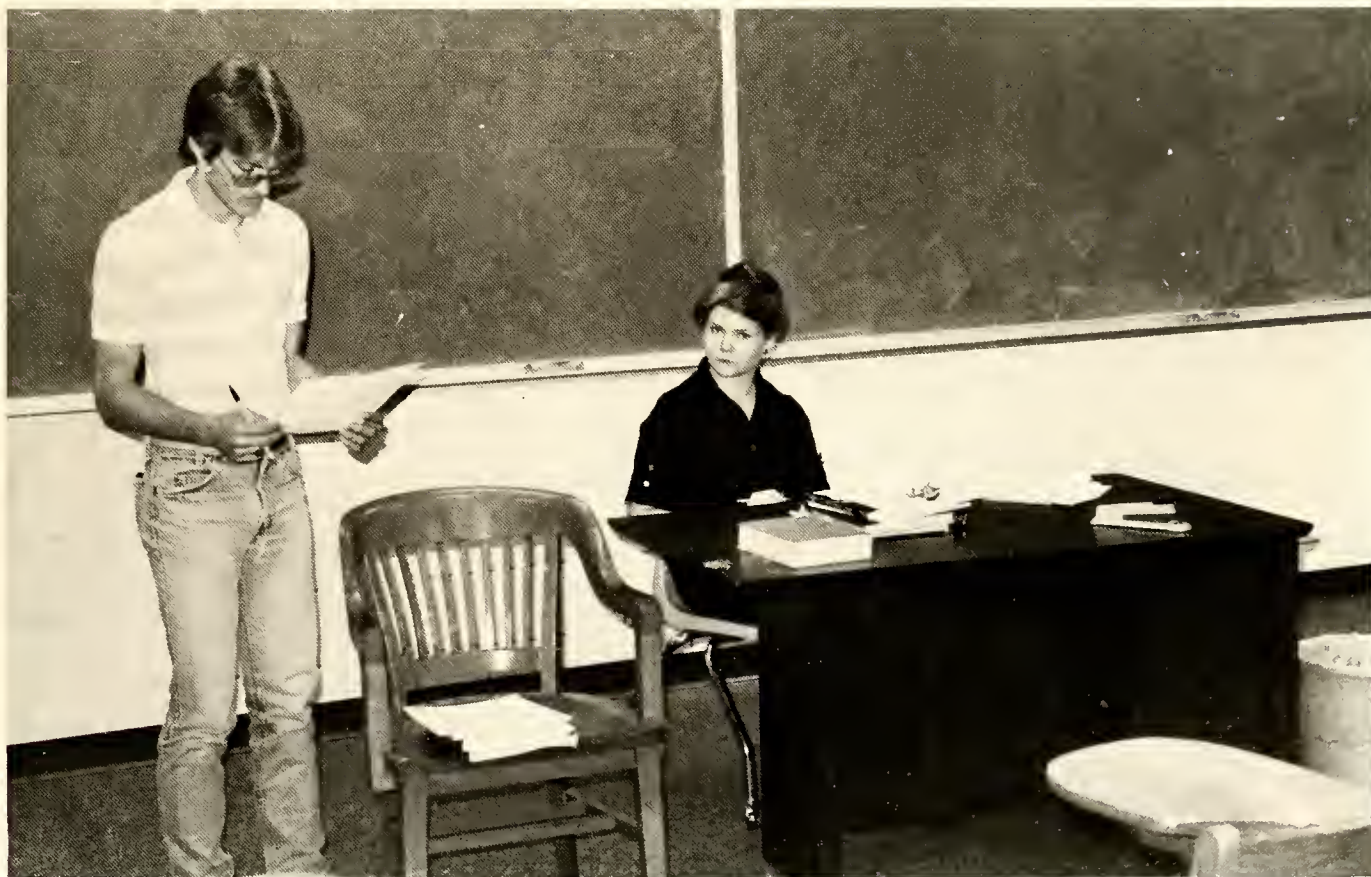

Teachers are willing to help their students, and to give them extra time outside of class. From a biology lab to an EDP class, the student gets the attention necessary to learn.

Academics . . .

At MCC, academics means something more than just sitting in a classroom and being lectured to. Students and teachers enjoy a much closer relationship at Mitchell. Classes, for the most part, are smaller, allowing such a relationship.

Some Kinda

Sondra Mitchell and Gayle
Rary know the answer!

One of the many works on exhibit at Wallace House over the winter.

Winter Weather!

This winter, North Carolina was blessed with some of the nicest weather ever. The mountains had snow for skiing, but we had warm enough weather to wear short sleeves in November! Despite a few days of cold and rainy weather, we still did fine: 72 degrees isn't bad!

"Dear John ..."

The Union:

"Let's go to the Union." Almost all of us here have heard that at sometime or another, particularly during the winter, when it is too cold to go outside. With its hangout supplies - video games, pool tables, T.V. - the Union is a great place to spend some time. Oh yes, you can get something to eat, too.

"What can I get you, honey?" Mrs. Link's familiar question is heard by many students every day.

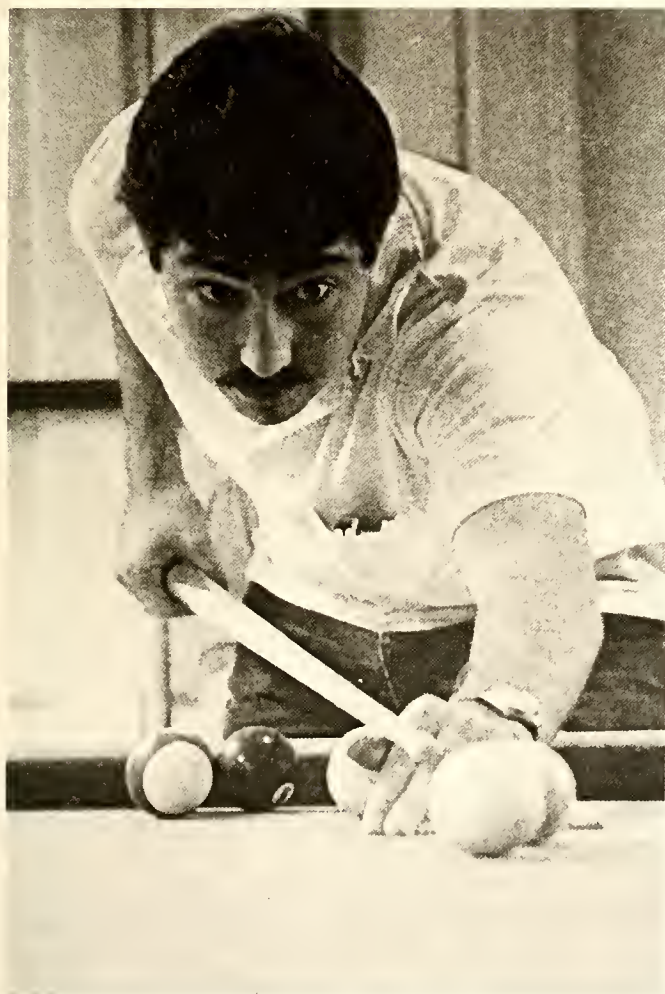

"Look out, here I come!"

"Oh, oh, time to go to class. Too bad!"

Hangout Of Stars

That's right, hangout of stars. Just look at all those soon-to-be famous people around. Who knows, maybe a future president is sharing your table. And just think about all those soap opera stars that come in here every day via television. Amazing, isn't it?

Concentrate ... concentrate ...

See How They Run

A Very Merry

Mitchell was very dressed up for Christmas this year. Phi Theta Kappa decorated the Science Building and Phi Beta Lambda decorated the Vocational Building. Both the SGA and the Freshman Class bought trees; the SGA put theirs on the Main Building's porch and the freshmen put theirs in the library.

An unusual type of Christmas card.

Derrick VanRavestein takes a snooze in the very un-Christmassy weather we had.

The Science Building just had the Christmas-card look.

Christmas at MCC

David Farris soloed during the program.

The Choir and Theatrical Company got together and gave us a wonderful gift. The Christmas Program this year was a combination of song and drama. O Henry's Gift of the Magi was presented by the Theatrical Company, and songs of the season were performed by the Choir.

Yes Virginia . . .

It Does Snow In N.C.!

Although we did not have a white Christmas this year, some snow did fall in our area. The snow was accompanied by ice storms, which created beautiful ice sculptures out of these trees. Lookout Dam, on a clear winter's night was also a beautiful sight.

Section B Sports

Mitchell Mavericks

Kneeling: Romus Jefferies, Billy Overby, Robbie Horton, Tony Davidson, Kent Houpe, and Jeff Alley. Standing: Coach Bob Blalock, Andre Wilson, Arnold Griffin, Brian Bell, Bernard Baxter, Kevin White, and Terry Levan.

The Mavericks went 13 and 10 this year, finishing second in the conference. They also got second place in the conference tournament, losing a heartbreaker to Surry in the final.

Captains this year were Bernard Baxter and Billy Overby. Freshmen Robbie Horton, Jeff Alley, and Andre Wilson did a fine job also.

M.C.C. Defeats Carolina J.V.

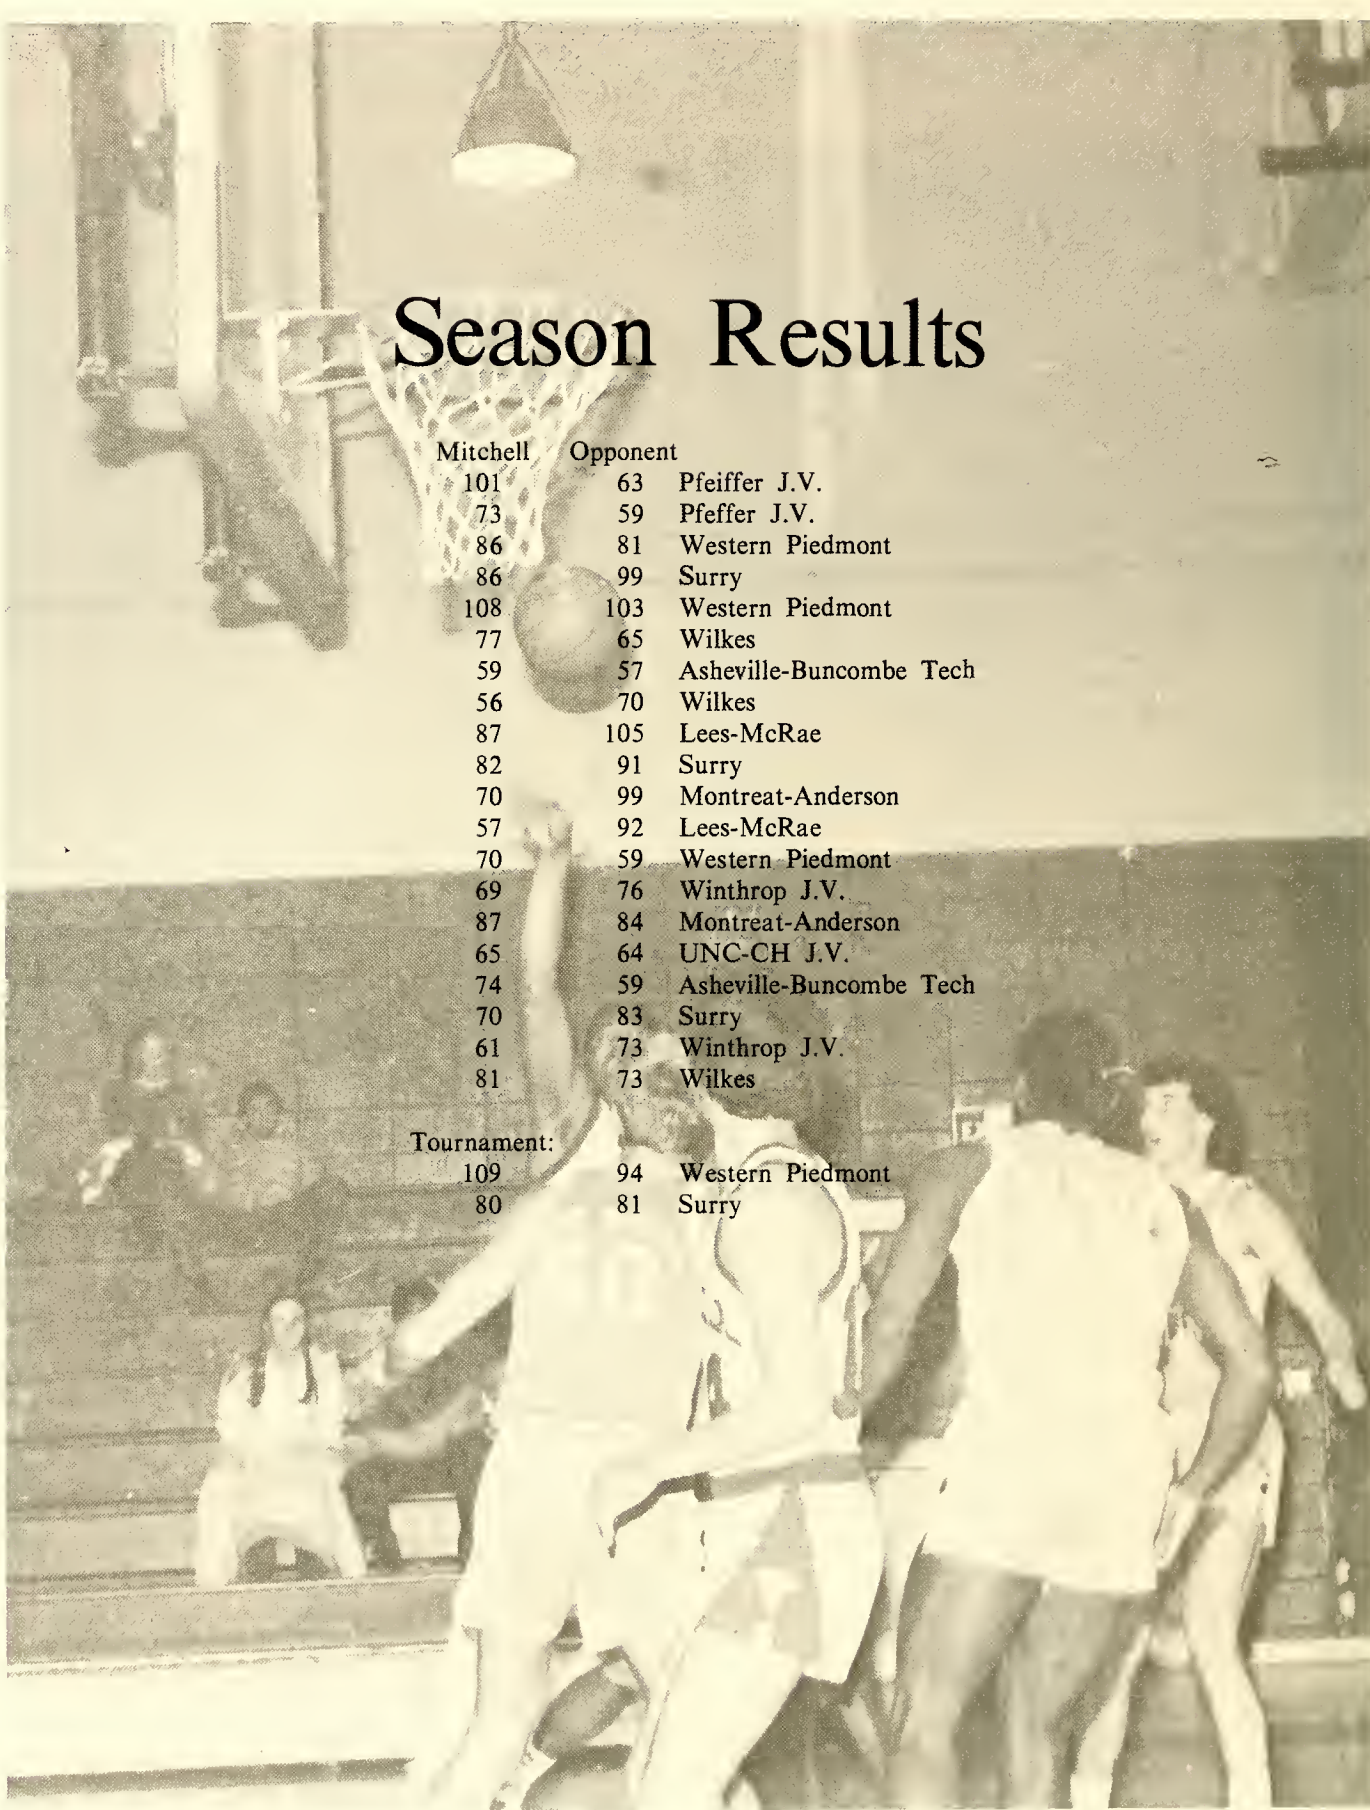

Bernard Baxter fights off a Carolina-blue horde for a rebound.

In a very exciting game, the Mavericks defeated UNC-CH's Jayvee squad before a large crowd. They did it on a last second shot by reserve Terry Levan. After Billy Overby missed a one-and-one free throw with about six seconds left, Terry got in the middle of the lane and grabbed the rebound. He then just laid it on in, resulting in Mitchell beating Carolina 65-64.

Arnold Griffin also gets tangled up in blue trying for a rebound.

Mavs Come On Strong — Behind

Bernard Baxter and Billy Overby. The captains of the team played some truly brilliant basketball this season. From Bernard's dunks to Billy's far-out jump shots, they provided fans with a real show.

Bernard Baxter prepares to get the Mavericks another two points against Montreat.

Billy Overby shoots over Montreat-Anderson's spirited defense.

Bernard Baxter lets fly yet another shot against Montreat.

Captains Baxter and Overby

From the first game against the Pfeiffer Jayvee squad, Billy Overby and Bernard Baxter have demonstrated their enormous talents. Billy took seemingly impossible long jump shots and Bernard grabbed seemingly impossible rebounds. What a show!

Bernard Baxter watches his shot go up.

Billy Overby takes a jump shot from the corner as Bernard Baxter gets ready underneath.

Circle Poll Results

Becky O'Keefe, Sports editor, put together a basketball poll, which 67 students and faculty took. The faculty filled out seven polls and students sixty. The results were as follows:

Predict this year's ACC Tournament winner:

UNC-39 votes Virginia-17 votes

Predict this year's regular-season winner:

UNC-37 votes Virginia-13 votes Tie between UNC and UVA-18 votes

Predict this year's ACC Rookie of the Year:

Brad Daugherty-23 votes Johnny Dawkins-18 votes Mark Price-15 votes

Predict this year's ACC Player of the Year:

Ralph Sampson-35 votes Michael Jordan-20 votes

The final standings were assigned a value and then averaged

- | | |
|--|-------------------|
| 1. UNC | 11. Minnesota |
| 2. Virginia | 12. Marquette |
| 3. Tie between Louisville and Georgetown | 13. Iowa |
| 4. | 14. Tulsa |
| 5. UCLA | 15. St. John's |
| 6. Kentucky | 16. UAB |
| 7. UNLV | 17. Houston |
| 8. Villanova | 18. USC |
| 9. Memphis State | 19. Wichita State |
| 10. Indiana | 20. Missouri |

Predict this year's Final Four:

- | | |
|-------------|---------------|
| 1. UNC | 3. Louisville |
| 2. Virginia | 4. Georgetown |

Predict this year's champ:

UNC

As far as "favorite schools" go, this is how the vote went:

UNC-33 votes	Wake Forest-3 votes
N.C. State-6 votes	Clemson-1 vote
Virginia-5 votes	Duke-1 vote
Maryland-3 votes	Georgia Tech-1 vote

The favorite non-ACC school, was, to no one's surprise, Mitchell Community College.

Maverick Cheerleaders

Gayle Rary

Due to circumstances beyond our control, we were unable to get a group picture of the cheerleaders. Therefore, we took individual pictures of those members of the squad that were available.

This year, the Maverick cheerleaders were advised by Miss Gail Elmore. Their captain was Sondra Mitchell. The squad did an outstanding job and got the crowd fired up at every game.

Sophomores

Sophomore Class Officers

This year's sophomore class officers were: Teresa Reavis, Vice-President; Gayle Rary, Treasurer; Robin Mayberry, Secretary; and Rick Daniels, President.

The primary responsibility of the sophomore class is to put on the Christmas Dance and the Miss Merry Christmas contest. However, this class has decided to begin the drive to get funds to build a new gymnasium for Mitchell.

Editor's Page

The best part of being the editor is having a page like this where I can thank people and send messages of sorts . . . that is, if any one reads this page.

Apology

I would like to apologize to the students and faculty for being unable to get this book out on time. I would especially like to apologize to Dean Bradshaw, whom I promised that I would get it out on time, and the Board of Trustees and Dr. Poindexter.

Thank Yous

Thanks to Wayne Wolfe of Walsworth for his unending patience and willingness to give help and advice.

Thanks to Dean Bradshaw and Mrs. Leigh for their help and encouragement.

Thanks and hugs and kisses to Jimmy Campbell, the best photographer in the world. Without Jimmy, we wouldn't have a yearbook at all.

Messages

To Eric B. - Rock lives, 107 KZL!
To Philip T. - I bet you'll never forget "the mighty line!"
To Johnny W., Paul W., and Paul C. - calculus time in the library.
To Susan H. - Look at those legs (#22)!
To Lisa R. and Karen P. - remember the summer of '82?
To "Uncle Harvey" - Happy birthday party '82 - remember the smurf!
To Mr. K - thanks for everything except Micro.
To Mr. Myers - Want a rootbeer?
